

Choosing a Preschool

Don't get hung-up on any one philosophy. A preschool can be eclectic, using valuable pieces of many philosophies. A philosophy is only as good as the humans that present it. True quality comes from a continuous quest to fine tune the child's experience.

For more information:

Sylvia Ford, M.A. <http://sylviaford.com/> (415) 370-9609, ecewise@sbcglobal.net